David Blake Clinic - May 21 & 22, 2016

Back by popular demand, STF welcomes David Blake, internationally-acclaimed dressage rider and trainer. David's previous workshops at STF have sold out and received enthusiastic reviews.

This is an exciting opportunity to learn from a master teacher, in a world-class facility, without having to travel long distances.

David started riding when he was four years old in Paris, France, where he began his career as a jumper. He switched to dressage when he was fourteen and within two years won his USDF Bronze Medal.

In 1998 David won his USDF Silver Medal and the Gold Medal in 2003. Soon after David was chosen to train in the US Equestrian Federation's Young Horse Program where he honed his skills as a young horse trainer that he is so well known for today.

David has trained with some of the greatest in the Dressage business; Jan Ebeling, Janet Brown, Michael Poulin, Axel Steiner, Harry Bolt and Christine Traurig, Steffen and Shannon Peters. David is now working and training with Guenter Seidel, a long time mentor. Please visit his website at www.DavidBlakeDressage.com.
