Memberships Defined

Participating Membership (PM): A membership issued to an individual directly by USDF. The membership year is December 1 through November 30. PMs are available for 1-year ($90), 5-years ($360), or life ($1,800). A USDF Youth Participating Membership (YPM) is available for individuals who have not reached their 21st birthday by December 1 of the current membership year ($72). A PM allows the member to compete at USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competitions and to participate as a rider and/or owner/lessee for all Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards and the Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional Dressage Championship program.

Group Membership (GM): A membership issued to an individual by USDF when the member name and dues are submitted to USDF through an affiliate Group Member Organization (GMO). The GM year begins December 1 and ends November 30. A GM allows the member to compete at USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competitions and participate in the USDF Rider Awards Program and the USDF Regional Schooling Show Awards Program.

Business Membership (BM): A membership that runs December 1 through November 30 and is issued to a business or organization directly by USDF. The USDF BM ($240) offers a wider variety of advertising benefits. BMs satisfy requirements of horse ownership only.

Non-Member (NM) Identification Number: For each USDF NM owner/lessee and USDF NM rider there will be a USDF NM fee of $35 per competition that must be collected by the show secretary and submitted to USDF, along with the USDF Report of Fees document and the $5 affidavit fee and Competition Affidavit Form if the person cannot provide a copy of their USDF NM card. Owners/lessees or riders exempt from the NM number requirements are also exempt from paying the USDF NM fee. If there are multiple owners of a horse and all are NMs, only one of the owners must pay the NM fee. If the horse has at least one owner who is a current USDF PM, GM, or BM there is no NM fee assessed. Competition management will be invoiced for all applicable USDF NM fees not received with the USDF post-competition paperwork, along with a report listing all USDF NMs. Competition management is then required to submit the NM fees within 30 days to the USDF. An individual with a USDF NM identification number is not eligible for any USDF membership benefits. Once a USDF NM number has been assigned, a USDF NM card can be obtained from the USDF website.

Horse Identification (HID) Number: A one-time tracking number for horses ($35). Scores earned by a horse with an HID number will be recorded, but will NOT be counted towards Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards. A horse with an HID number is not eligible to compete in Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying or championship classes. An HID number can be upgraded to a Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR) for a fee of $80. If a horse has a USDF LHR it does not need an HID number. An HID number is a one-time fee that does not need to be renewed.

Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR): A horse with an LHR ($115) is eligible for Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards, and eligible to compete in Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying and championship classes, assuming requirements for the owner and rider are met. If a horse has an LHR it does not need an HID number. An LHR does not need to be renewed.

USDF Statement on Animal Welfare

The United States Dressage Federation, Inc. (USDF), a federation of individual members and over 100 independent organizations throughout the United States, supports the concept of ethical treatment of animals.

Dressage is a classical method of training horses, based upon the horse's natural responses, as carried out in a gradual, planned program during which the horse's athletic abilities are improved in a systematic manner. As a result, the horse becomes capable, comfortable, and responsive in partnership with the rider without the use of force. Dressage competition at various levels of achievement is the ultimate test of the training program to determine whether the desired harmony between horse and rider has been achieved.

The rules pertaining to dressage competition prohibit the use of artificial appliances, training aids, and drugs, which would force the horse to submit. Instead, the emphasis is upon training and a cooperative partnership with the rider. Major competitions are carefully monitored to assure that there is no unnecessary force or harshness displayed.

Unlike other horse sports in which horses enter training at a relatively immature state, dressage training is usually not seriously begun until the horse is three or four. The top levels of achievement require five or more years of progressive training and it is not unusual to see horses in international competition in their late teens. This, in itself, places a premium on good care and soundness throughout the horse's life.

While supporting the concept of animal welfare in its broadest form, the United States Dressage Federation, Inc., also recognizes that it is unrealistic to ascribe human emotions and responses to the horse which in its wild state is a creature of flight, living a hard and precarious existence. Under domestication, the horse is assured of ample food, water, and shelter, as well as protection against infectious diseases and damaging parasites, thus leading a longer and healthier life with a high rate of survival.

As an educational organization, USDF has numerous programs, which teach people how to pursue the accepted, humane training methods. A program of certifying instructors also emphasizes protecting the horse's welfare in pursuit of dressage training.

WARNING, RELEASE, AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

I understand that horses are potentially dangerous animals, and can cause serious injury to me, including permanent injury and/or death, or damage to my property, including but not limited to my horse. I understand that any horse, regardless of its training and prior behavior, may act or react unpredictably at any time for any reason, and may bolt, spook, rear, buck, bite, kick, fall, strike out, stomp, trample, spin, fall on or collide with objects, collide with other horses, step on, over or become entangled in objects, tack, or equipment, or otherwise act in a manner that may cause injury and/or death to me, or damage to my property, including my horse. I understand that horse tack or other horse equipment can break, loosen, or otherwise fail, causing serious injury to me, including permanent injury and/or death, or damage to my property, including but not limited to my horse. I understand that any rider or handler of a horse may lose control of such horse at any time and for any reason, and that doing so may cause serious injury to me and my minor child, including permanent injury and/or death, or damage to my property, including my horse. I further understand that I am solely responsible for using proper safety equipment at all times while near, grooming, handling, lunging, and riding horses, including but not limited to wearing an ASTM-certified riding helmet and riding boots. I understand that the risks set forth in this paragraph and other similar risks are inherent to participation in any "equine activity" as defined by ORS § 30.687(2).

I understand there are potential hazards at an equine facility, including but not limited to uneven, slippery or rocky footing, open water, rodent holes, molehills, irrigation equipment, farming equipment, drainage and irrigation ditches, hoses, livestock, electric fencing, and loud noises. I further understand and acknowledge that there may be animals, including but not limited to dogs, other horses, cows, insects, reptiles, deer, cougars, coyotes, and bears, present at or in close proximity to an equine facility that present a risk of serious harm, injury, illness, damage, disease, or death to me, my child, and my property, including my horse.

The equine facility at which Silver Tail Farm, LLC ("Silver Tail") operates its business, including but not limited to the barns, arenas, outbuildings, paddocks, pastures, driveway(s), etc. is referred to herein as "Stable." I understand that horse boarding, horse training, horseback riding instruction, exhibition in horse shows, and all activities and services related thereto sponsored by Silver Tail or Stable and its owners, members, employees, agents, and representatives each constitute an "equine activity" as defined by ORS § 30.687(2). I understand that by directly engaging in any such equine activity, I am a "participant" in an equine activity as defined by ORS § 30.687(5).

I UNDERSTAND THAT BY MY PRESENCE AT OR USE OF STABLE, I HAVE INDICATED I ACCEPT OREGON'S EQUINE INHERENT RISK LAWS' LIMITS OF LIABILITY RESULTING FROM THE INHERENT RISKS OF EQUINE ACTIVITIES. I UNDERSTAND THAT STABLE IS NOT A SPECTATOR AREA, AND BY MY PRESENCE AT OR USE OF STABLE, I WILL BE REGARDED AS A PARTICIPANT IN AN EQUINE ACTIVITY AND LIMITED BY OREGON'S EQUINE INHERENT RISK LAWS.
